Union Lodge No. 45, Lima, New York

WARRANT: The original warrant, dated June 11, 1810, signed by DEWITT CLINTON, Grand Master, is in possession of the Lodge, the first number was No. 261; it became No. 45 when the Lodges were renumbered in 1839.

The warrant named as first officers: JUSTIN SMITH, Master; SMITH WEEKS, Senior Warden and ASAHEL WARNER, Junior Warden.

Minutes: Not intact: all minutes prior to 1840 were destroyed by fire.

At the organization of the Lodge it was located at Lima, NY, where it remained until 1825; under date of October 25th the record contains the following entry: "This Lodge removed to West Mendon (now Honeoye Falls), where it occupied rooms in what was known as 'Old Sines Tavern'; on January 25, 1831, the Lodge returned to Lima where it has since remained. Upon its return in 1831 it occupied rooms in the upper story of the Town House on Rochester Street, remaining here several years, when it removed to an old hostelry known as "The Yellow Wasp," located about a mile west of the village. Upon its return to the village it located in "The American Hotel," at the four corners; in 1853 it moved to rooms in the Godfrey building on Rochester Street, which were occupied until their destruction by fire in 1865. All of the property of the Lodge was destroyed by this fire. For a short time it met in the Gilbert Block on West Main Street: in 1866 it moved to the Masonic Hall at the four corners where it still remains.

Thrice has its quarters been destroyed by fire, almost its entire possessions being swept away, but phoenix-like it came out of the ashes and wreck with sufficient pluck and courage to overcome disaster and maintain its existence. The Masons composing this Lodge were men of energy, loyal to their duty, and were possessed of that sterling energy that overcomes all obstacles, that will find a way out of all difficulties. Their fortitude and zeal never weakened, but like true sons and descendants of those intrepid founders of the Lodge, have carried on the work so well begun by such men as SMITH WEEKS, the first elected Master, who was a Methodist clergyman whose custom it was to deliver a discourse on St. John's Day; ASAHEL WARNER, the first Junior Warden, one of the early pioneers of Western New York, honored and respected in the community, a Major of militia and for several years represented Ontario County in the State Assembly; LEVI HOVEY, the first elected Treasurer, for a time one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas and Clerk of Livingston County; SAMUEL DANIELS, the first Secretary, was a physician of note in the town of Livonia; his remains rest in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Lima, and upon the stone marking his grave is his epitaph as follows:

"Greatly lamented, not only in the endeared relations of a husband, father and friend, but also as one skilled in the medical profession. and blessed of God, in restoring to health and preserving from the grave many within the wide sphere of his labors."
In the early history of the Lodge it met in the daytime, and frequently all three degrees were conferred in one day.

MORGAN PERIOD: In common with other Lodges in Western New York, Union Lodge suffered under the wild frenzy and bitter hostility to everything Masonic during that period. Notwithstanding the persecution and social ostracism met with by these loyal Masons, they continued to hold meetings as regularly as possible; a part of the time the bitterness of those who were active in their hatred was such that men known to be Masons were subjected to insults and threats in the open day; at one time clergymen refused to officiate at the funerals of those known to have Masonic affiliations.

R.'. W.'. GEORGE W. ATWELL, JR., in his "Leaves from the History of Union Lodge, No. 45," says:

"Nor did this feeling seem to abate with the flight of years; so late as 1848 clothing infected with smallpox was, during a meeting of the Lodge, heaped against the door leading to the Lodge-room, then situated in the American Hotel at the four corners in the village of Lima, and every member in attendance save one suffered from the contagion. We cannot attempt to give anything like a history of these years, or the constant scene of trials' through which our brethren passed: for obvious reasons the minutes contain nothing save the facts which show that the organization was perpetuated; that which would interest us most is unwritten, the actors in those stirring scenes have all obeyed the summons of the Master and traditions alone remain."

Prominent among the members of these years was ALANSON BROWN, who was Master in 1825, and with the exception of two years, from 1831 to 1855; he was the first who received the third degree under the warrant in 1817, and during the remainder of his life he was unswerving in his attachment to the principles of Masonry; at the installation of officers, December 31, 1856 (the 40th anniversary of Bro. BROWN'S initiation), M.'. W.'. JOHN L. LEWIS, then Grand Master of Masons in this State, was present, and on behalf of the Lodge presented to him a beautiful Past Master's jewel in recognition of his long and untiring devotion to the Order he loved and served so well; he died June 9, 1872, and was buried with Masonic honors in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Lima, where so many of his brethren

"Sleep the sleep that knows not breaking."

There are others to be remembered as his associates during these years: JUSTIN SMITH, ASAHEL WARNER, SAMUEL STEVENS, JAMES STERLING, GEORGE W. ATWELL, ERASMUS T. COMMINS, JOHN LLOYD, FRANKLIN CARTER, ADOLPHUS WATKINS, ALEXANDER MARTIN, JOHN CLARE, E. ATWOOD SUMNER, HARVEY BROWN, BELOSTE BUNNELL, AUGUSTUS A. BENNETT and SAMUEL C. BRONSON are names which frequently occur in the annals of that period. To them as Masons we render a homage, justly due, for their determination of character and inflexible fidelity to their trust. Their fortitude and zeal never flagged amid the toils and conflicts of life: they were faithful unto the end; and one by one they have passed to that reward which awaits duty well performed.

"Who in Life's battle firm doth stand,
Shall bear Hope's tender blossoms
Into the Silent Land."

But brighter days at length dawned; the storm spent its force and sober truth prevailed; and this little band of Brethren beheld in triumph the downfall of apostasy and the overthrow of their enemies. With the year 1848 commenced a revival in Masonic circles and in Union Lodge, No. 45, there was an activity hitherto unknown; accessions by initiation and affiliation increased, and the time-honored communication "on or before the full moon" was supplanted by two meetings each month.

The following curious and interesting items are taken from an early sketch of the Lodge:

"At a stated meeting of Union Lodge, No. 261, held on the 31st of December, 1816, ZERINA C. HOVEY, ALANSON BROWN and ELIAS CLARE were the three first members initiated in the Lodge, and ALANSON BROWN was the first person initiated. Raised and raised in said Lodge."

"At a stated meeting of Union Lodge held at this Lodge-room, May 20, 1834, it was voted that all the members of this Lodge who have moved out of the jurisdiction of this Lodge, and all of them who have been summoned to pay their dues to the Grand Lodge and have neglected to do so, stand suspended until they do so."

"In May, 1841, all the furniture, books, papers and records belonging to Union Lodge, No. 45, were destroyed by fire except the Charter, recorded proceedings of the Lodge and the Officers' jewels, the square, compass and bible was burnt."

1856, December 31. At a special meeting of Union Lodge, No. 45, called by order of WILLIAM HARMON, W. Master for Installing the Officers elect and for the presentation of a gold medal to our late Worshipful Master ALANSON BROWN, agreeable to a resolution of said Lodge, this evening being the fortieth anniversary of his being Initiated into the mysteries of Masonry in this Lodge, he being the first person Initiated, Passed and Raised in this Lodge.

Lodge opened in due form on the third degree in Masonry.

(Here follows a list of the Officers and the names, of thirty-eight Masons who were present.)

"In due time it was announced by the Tiler that the Grand Officers were in waiting.

"The Lodge was called up and the Grand Officers were received in due form—The HON. JOHN L. LEWIS, JR., Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York was welcomed in the East and took his seat as Presiding Officer, and proceeded to address the brethren and their families in an eloquent and fraternal manner on their duties as Masons, after which the Officers of the Lodge were duly installed by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, assisted by W. L. ALANSON BROWN as Deputy Grand Master, JACOB B. HALL as Grand Marshall, and took their several stations. The Most Worshipful Grand Master presented a gold Past Master's medal to W. L. Master ALANSON BROWN, who expressed his thanks in a fitting manner.

"Inscribed upon the medal is, 'Presented by the Brethren of Union Lodge, No. 45, F. & A. M., to Alanson Brown in token of respect and as a memento of more than twenty-five years' service as their Master. Lima. 1850.'

"The Lodge was then called from labor to refreshment, and proceeded to the American Hotel, where a bountiful repast was served up by Russell Taylor. After partaking of the bounties provided and an interchange of fraternal sentiments, the brethren repaired to Masonic Hall where the Lodge was closed in due form.

Obituary of Alanson Brown

ALANSON BROWN--On Sunday of last week one of the pioneers of this section died, ripe in years, and honored by his fellow men.- Alanson Brown, to whom we refer, died at the residence of his son-in-law, W. E. Pattie, Esq., of Avon, after a very short illness. He was 83 years old at the time of his death. When only six years old, he removed, with his parents, to Lima, (than called Charleston,) and his home has been in that town most of his life. The gradual changes which Mr. Brown has been take place in his long life-time have been great. The wilderness has been given way to the busy town, the forest become the cultivated farm, the trackless, unknown country been covert with innumerable lines of railways and telegraphs. He has seen a nation spring from the weakness of infancy into the ripeness and strength of great power.---Powers and dynasties across have come into existence and passed away, while he looked on,---in fact, the total of the program and improvement thus far accomplished in the nineteenth century has been made before his eyes. All these things he remembered well, and his faculties remaining unimpaired to the last, he often delighted to recall the reminiscences of youth and early manhood. Mr. Brown was an active member of the Masonic fraternity, and was one of the oldest Masons in Western New York. He was twice married, and six children survived him, one son and five daughters, (one of them Mrs. J. F. Bishop, of this village). He was buried with Masonic honors on Tuesday of last week in Lima.

LEVI HOVEY, born the ninth of 16 children on 16 Jan 1792, the son of Simeon Hovey and his second wife Lovisa Bloss. He began life as a carpenter in Lima, NY; but soon drifted to Genesee, NY There he studied law and became a lawyer and judge of a court in Batavia, NY. He was the owner of a book store, and became publisher and editor of the Genesee Democrat, the county organ of the Democratic party. He invested in a new printing press, and before he was able to pay for it a note he had given was protested. Feeling disgraced, he went to New Orleans, LA, and died. It was learned, upon examination of his business affairs that the books in his store would have been ample security for his debt. He married Betsey, daughter of Asa and Christiana (Dart) Bishop 22 Sep 1816, b. in Genesee 20 Sep 1792; d. 1 May 1819. Children born in Lima, NY:

- ii. CHARLES, b. 02 Aug 1821.
- iii. JANE ELIZABETH, b. 10 Mar 1825; m. 24 Apr 1867 Isaac I. Voorheis in Pontiac. He was a farmer and capitalist; and lived at Lapeer, Mich., where she died 30 Sep 1884.

William A. Sutherland. Bro. Sutherland was born May 30, 1849, near Canandaigua, NY, was educated at Genesee Wesleyan Seminary and Genesee College, at Lima, N. Y.; read law in the office of Supreme Court Justice Nash, and was admitted to the bar in 1874. He is a member of the law firm of Shuart, Sutherland & Toole. He was many years secretary of the Republican County Committee of Livingston County, NY; has been a delegate to every republican state convention for many years; in 1892 was temporary chairman at the State Convention in Albany and delivered the first Philippic against Judge Maynard; in 1893 was chairman of the committee on platform at the Republican State Convention at Syracuse, NY, when the principal issue before the people was the opposition to the election of Judge Maynard to the Court of Appeals; he served as member of the Republican National Committee for the State of New York from 1892 to 1896 and was a delegate from the Rochester District to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in June, 1896.

One of the most prominent Masons in Rochester, and, indeed, in the State of New York, is Past Grand Master William A. Sutherland. He was at the head of the Grand Lodge of the Empire State for two terms, the years 1897 and 1898. He took a most active part in the welfare of Masons and Masonic organizations and his administration was marked by aggressive work. One of the most important incidents of his administration was his prompt action in severing relations with the Grand Lodge of Peru because of the action of the Grand Master of Peru, Christian Dam, in substituting the constitution of Peru for the Bible on all the altars of Peruvian lodges. The action of the Empire State Masons was followed by Grand Lodges throughout this country and finally throughout the world. J. A. Ego Aguirre, New York State's representative, near the Peruvian Grand Lodge, on March 25, 1898, issued a circular protesting against the action of Grand Master Dam. On May 6, 1898, Dam was defeated and M. W. J. A. Ego Aguirre was elected Grand Master. The Bible was at once restored to Peruvian Lodge altars.

R. W. William A. Sutherland was made a Mason October 1, 1870, in Union Lodge, 45, at Lima, NY, was junior warden of Union Lodge in 1873, Worshipful Master of Mt. Morris Lodge 122 in 1883-84; first Master of Frank R. Lawrence Lodge, 797, Rochester, in 1889; senior deacon of that Lodge from 1890 to 1894; was district deputy for the 22d Masonic district of New York State from 1889 to 1891; was elected junior Grand Warden June 3, 1891; Senior Grand Warden June 7, 1893; Deputy Grand Master June 5, 1895; received the Royal Arch degree Feb. 22, 1871 in Morning Star Chapter 107; was High Priest of Ionic Chapter 210 in 1890 and 1891; received the degree of Knight Templar March 14, 1884, in Cyrene Commandery 39, Rochester, N. Y., and served as prelate of the commandery from 1886 to 1891 inclusive; received the degrees in Rochester Lodge of Perfection Jan. 12, 1885; has been treasurer of that lodge and Rochester Council; was Master of Rochester Chapter of Rose-Croix from 1888 to 1892; received the degrees of Rochester Consistory Feb. 9, 1885; was elected to the 33° at Providence Sept. 21, 1892, and was duly created Sovereign Grand Inspector General, 33°, Sept. 19, 1893, at the session of the Supreme Council of the Northern District, held in Chicago. For more than a quarter of a century Bro. Sutherland has served the craft faithfully.

1897-98 William Andrew Sutherland (30 May 1849-8 Mar 1908)

"A Standard History of Freemasonry in the State of New York," Peter Ross. Vol II, 1901. pages 17-26; Vol. I, page 690.

The officers associated with John Stewart during his two terms as Master were in many respects as thoroughly devoted a body of craftsmen as ever served the Grand Lodge.

William A. Sutherland, Deputy Grand Master during these years, and who in 1897 succeeded to "the purple of the fraternity" is one of the best known lawyers in the western part of the State. He was born 30 May 1849, near Canandaigua, NY (Hopewell, Ontario Co., NY), the son of Andrew Sutherland (b. 22 Jul 1818, New Fare, Niagara, NY; d. 27 Feb 1891, Rochester, NY, son of Andrew Sutherland and Naomi Cooley) and Mary McLean (b. 16 Mar 1828, Dundee, Yates, NY; d. Nov 1899, daughter of William McLean and Elizabeth DeGroot). He received his education at Genesee Wesleyan Seminary and Genesee College, at Lima, N. Y., and read law in the office of Edwin A. Nash, now a Justice of the Supreme Court; was admitted to practice in April, 1874, and, removing to Rochester, entered into partnership with W. Dean Shuart, ex-Surrogate of Monroe county, in January, 1884, which partnership continues to this day.

He was many years Secretary of the Republican County Committee of Livingston County and has been a delegate to every Republican State convention for many years. In 1892 he was temporary chairman of the State convention which met at Harmanus Bleeker Hall, Albany, NY, and delivered the first philippic against Judge Maynard; in 1893 he was chairman of the Committee on Platform of the Republican State convention held at Syracuse, when the principal issue before the people was the opposition to the election of Judge Maynard to the Court of Appeals; he served as the member of the Republican National Committee for the State of New York from 1892 to 1896, and was a delegate from the Rochester district to the Republican National convention at St. Louis in June, 1896. Mr. Sutherland's professional life has been a very active one, and he has been concerned in the argument of questions of wide and far-reaching interest; he was leading counsel on the Republican side in the management and argument of the cases growing out of the Senatorial election contest in 1891, and was also retained to institute for the Republicans the attack on the constitutionality of the re-apportionment act passed in 1892. W. A. Sutherland is one of the most eloquent speakers before the bar of New York and his Masonic addresses have often thrilled vast assemblages. We would like to reproduce some of these, but space forbids. We, however, give one little gem, part of the address he delivered at Rondout on Decoration Day, 1898, when unveiling a monument over the burial plot of Rondout Lodge, No. 343: We are met in the city of the dead. We are engaged in a ceremony unique, if not unprecedented. That which we here dedicate is to commemorate the stranger from afar, as well as those whose remains were followed to the cemetery by the weeping faces of bereaved friends. About us are monuments erected by loving hands in memory of their departed kinsmen.

These other stones speak of family ties that have been sundered, and of friends, relatives, and life-long companions, whose heads have been bowed in grief. To this plot Freemasons will come, bringing the stranger and the sojourner to his last earthly resting place. Surrounding us are mounds hallowed by the remains of those torn from family circles, which, nevertheless, can here convene to mourn their dead. But in this plot now lies one, and doubtless others will be laid, dying far from home and friends, save as brethren have been found in Rondout Lodge. Because the portals of the tomb are ever open: because the shadow of the coming throng ever falls athwart its gateway; because the sound of mourning is ever heard in some household; because the hand of death does every day touch the heartstrings of some survivors as it snatches from sight beloved forms; because in the midst of life we are in death, this monument will always be a joy to some, pointing as the index finger of Rondout Lodge from earth toward heaven and saying: "The dead are not here, but yonder."

The stars that are not seen of day, and at night are oft times covered from our eyes by the overhanging clouds, do, nevertheless, move in their majestic march through space, held in course by the hand that made us all. Though not seen by feeble eyes of men they are there. But they who builded this monument, the members of Rondout Lodge, who, forty-two years ago, purchased this plot of ground, the fair ones who so generously last winter aided your enterprise, aye, the six already buried here, believed in the life that is after this. Our friends that are gone we cannot see, and our puny hands cannot reach their touch, but the law that placed us here, the law that removes us hence, the law that sent us without our bidding, the law that calls us in an hour that we think not, that law and its Maker have taught us that beyond the reach of human hands, beyond the sweep of earthly eyes, we shall live.

Note: Naomi's father, Col. Benjamin Cooley, died in Pittsford, Vermont 27 Feb 1810. Her husband and she returned to Pittsford early in 1816 to settle her father's estate and it was while they were there that Fletcher was born. Thus the apparent anomaly of having Fletcher's younger brother, Carroll, and the rest of his elder siblings born in Cambria, NY while he was born in Vermont.

Mount Morris Lodge No. 122, Mount Morris, New York

Warrant: 5 Jun 1875.

The first number was 316; it became No. 122 in 1847.

MINUTES: All minutes previous to the year 1855 were destroyed by fire.

Mount Morris Lodge, No. 316, was organized in 1818, and as all and papers relating to this Lodge are missing, but little is known its affairs; even the time when it ceased to work is unknown.

It was in existence until about the year 1826, and, in all probability, it suffered the fate of others which were forced to succumb to the bitter hatred and persecution occasioned by the Morgan affair.

Charter Members:

Abraham Camp.	David A. Miller.
Enos T. Baldwin.	Horatio Reed.
Eli Lake.	David A. Person.
John Conroy.	Aaron Adams.
Philetus Reynolds. .	Jacob Reynolds.

It was not until the winter of 1846-47 that a successful effort was made to revive Masonry in Mount Morris. On March 4, 1847, a petition was prepared, asking for a dispensation, which was issued, and at a session of the Grand Lodge, held June 3, 1847, the Committee on Warrants reported that the dispensation had been returned, and recommended that a warrant be granted. On June 9, 1847, the warrant was granted.

The signers to the petition were:

William D. Morgan.	John Vernam.
Joseph Favor.	Eli Lake.
Alfred Dean.	Henry Maxwell.
Ebenezer Damon.	Elias B. Driggs.
Walker M. Hinman.	Prentice Pendleton.
George G. Williams.	David A. Miller.

The charter named as officers:

William D. Morgan, Master;
Henry Maxwell, Senior Warden;
Walker M. Hinman, Junior Warden.

The petition had the indorsement of Phoenix Lodge, No. 115, signed by:

M. Brown, Master;
Javan Bradley, Senior Warden;
Joseph W. Richardson, Junior Warden;
Jervis P. Beach, Secretary.

THE DISPENSATION.

"By the Most Worshipful John D. Willard, Grand Master of Masons of the State of New York:

"WHEREAS, It has been represented to me that BROS. WILLIAM D. MORGAN, JOHN VERNAM, JOSEPH FAVOR, ELI LAKE, A. J. DEAN, HENRY MAXWELL, E. DAMON, ELIAS B. DRIGGS, WALKER M. HINMAN, PRENTICE PENDLETON, GEORGE G. WILLIAMS and DAVID A. MILLER, Master Masons of Mount Morris, in this State are desirous of being formed into a Lodge and their Memorial to that effect being duly recommended by the officers of Phoenix Lodge, No. 115, of Dansville, and the several petitioners vouched for by our well-known and Worshipful Brother, MERRITT BROWN, as worthy and well qualified Master Masons.

THEREFORE BE IT KNOWN: That I, having full confidence in the aforesaid brethren, and being desirous of extending the light and advantages of a well regulated Lodge to said brethren and those who may be found worthy to unite with them in sustaining the Masonic Institution in its useful and honorable work, do hereby authorize and empower the petitioners aforesaid to meet together as a regular Lodge of Master Masons, admit members, form a code of by-laws and do all such acts and things as have been and ought to be done by Lodges under dispensation, and for this purpose I do hereby appoint our Worthy and Well-beloved Brother, WILLIAM D. MORGAN, Master; HENRY MAXWELL, Senior Warden, and WALKER M. HINMAN, Junior Warden, of said Lodge, to be held in the town of Mount Morris, in the County of Livingston, in this State, to be known as Mount Morris Lodge, until the first day of June, A.D. 1847, A.L. 5847, or until the dispensation for any irregularity in the conduct of said Lodge, be recalled by me or by the Grand Lodge at any intermediate time, and I do hereby enjoin upon said Mount Morris Lodge a strict observance of the Constitution and regulations of the Grand Lodge, and I direct that previous to, or on the first Tuesday of June next, this dispensation be returned to the Grand Secretary, with a copy of the records of the Lodge, their by-laws and a registry return of members and the amount of dues accruing thereon, with the names in full in a plain hand for registry.

Given at the City of Troy and sealed with my private seal on the 30th day of March A.D. 1847, A.L. 5847.

By the Most Worshipful Grand Master,
JOHN D. WILLARD, Grand Master.

Attest:

R. R. BOYD, Grand Secretary.

The Lodge first met in the Green Building, remaining here several years, when it moved to the Empire Block; on June 22, 1873, this building was destroyed by fire and the Lodge lost all of its property, including the warrant.

The Grand Lodge ordered a duplicate warrant June 5, 1875.

The next meeting place was in the Eagle Block, where it remained until December, 1873, when it moved to the Mills Block, remaining here but a short time when it returned to the restored Empire Block.

On February 10, 1889, this building was again destroyed by fire, and the Lodge was for the second time without a home, its property gone up in smoke and flame.

Shortly after this the Lodge secured quarters in the Mayer Block, where it remained until June 1896, when it again moved, this time to quarters which had been especially designed for its use in the building known as the Masonic Block; these quarters were dedicated by M. W. WILLIAM A. SUTHERLAND June 29, 1896.

The Lodge has been unfortunate in losses by fire. In 1854 its first warrant was burned in a fire, and its present warrant is the third one it has had since 1847.

CLARENCE A. FOOTE.

Prominent Mount Morris Resident and Contractor Passes.

Clarence A. Foote, 79, one of the oldest and best known, residents of Mount Morris, died at his home in Murray street Sunday evening, after an illness of several months. Born on a farm, in the town of Mt. Morris, May 12, 1860, a son of Norman and Emily Foote, he gained his education in district schools and, at Nunda High School; where he graduated.

He studied architecture and for many years was engaged in the contracting business, during a part of that time as senior member, of the firm, of C. A. Foote & Son.

Under the direction of Mr. Foote a number of the finest structures in the village were built, including the Masonic Temple, the new High school building and the new Methodist Church; as well as the children's building for the Mt. Morris Tuberculosis Hospital group, a number of buildings for the Craig Company at Sonyea and the Perpy High School. He also built a number of residences in the village, including three houses near the corner of Murray and Stanley streets, on a site purchased from the Estate of Hiram P. Mills

The firm of C. A. Foote & Son was engaged in highway construction, having built a number of state roads in Western and Central New York, including the road from Groveland Station to Hampton Corners and the concrete pavement from Perry to Perry Center.'

His fraternal affiliations were with the Masonic Order, in which he was a 32d degree Mason, a Knight Templar; a Noble of the Mystic Shrine, and he had also served as Master of Ceremonies of the Grand Lodge. He had been a member of Mount Morris Lodge many years, having served that body as Master and in various other official capacities, as well as having had a prominent part in making the Masonic Temple possible. He was also a member and Past Worthy Patron of Mary Jamison Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

His political views found him a home in the Republican Party, and as such he served most efficiently as Mayor of the village. During the World War he was fuel administrator for Livingston County, as well as being active in Red Cross work.

April 16, 1884, Mr. Foote was married to Stella Olney of Dalton, and they observed their golden wedding anniversary in 1934. Mrs. Foote, died several years ago, and Mr. Foote is survived by three children: Olney N. Foote of Mount Morris. Mrs. Ward B. Gowdy of Dansville and Mrs. Kenyon Warner of Geneseo; six grandchildren and two brothers, Fred Foote of Mount Morris and Frank Foote of Nunda. Burial was in Mount Morris Cemetery.

Daniel Bissell – Daniel's father was a spy for General Washington:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Daniel_Bissell_\(spy\))

Daniel Bissell b. 30 Dec 1754; d. 5 Aug 1824) was a soldier and spy for the Continental Army during the Revolutionary War. He was born to Daniel and Elizabeth Bissell in East Windsor, Hartford, CT, in 1754 and enlisted on 7 Jul 1775, as a Fifer in the 8th Connecticut Regiment, and on 1 Apr 1776, signed on for the duration as a corporal in the 5th Connecticut Regiment. He became a sergeant on 1 Sep 1777, and ended the war with the 2nd Connecticut Regiment.

Under the direct orders of General George Washington, Bissell posed as a deserter in the city of New York from 14 Aug 1781 to 29 Sep 1782. He realized that to get the information Washington needed, he would have to join the British Army: for 13 months, he served in the British Infantry Corps led by Benedict Arnold. Bissell memorized everything he was able to find out and then made his way back to friendly lines where he was placed under arrest until Washington verified his story. Sergeant Bissell was able to furnish valuable information including detailed maps he drew of the enemy's positions. He was to become the last recipient of the Badge of Military Merit in June 1783, one of only three awarded by Washington himself.

The award was lost in a house fire in 1813, and Bissell died in Richmond, NY, in 1824, where he is buried at Allens Hill Cemetery. His tombstone is inscribed, "Daniel Bissell, Died August 5, 1824, Aged 70 Years, He had the confidence of Washington and served under him."

Thomas Dole, b. New Hampshire; resided in Pike, NY; initiated in Olive Branch Lodge, Vermont. In March 1985 a query was received at Grand Lodge regarding a Mrs. D. M. Francis who, with her husband, were in the process of restoring a house built between 1813 and 1820. The house was built by 'Judge' and/or 'General' Thomas Dole on East Coy Road at Newcomb Road. In an upper room there was stenciling, rather faded, which appeared to be Masonic in design. Tradition in the area had it that in the early 1900s the house was a meeting place for Masons in the area.

http://www.angelfire.com/co3/morgan/history_research.html

ABOUT ZEBULON HILL - In local history, our house is known as the "Thomas Dole House" (or the "General Dole House," or "that big haunted house up on the hill"), named for the man who built it. We thought it would be fun to also come up with a name we could make our own, hence "Zebulon Hill." Our town, Pike, was named for Zebulon Montgomery Pike, the frontiersman who named Pikes Peak, the 14,110' mountain outside Colorado Springs. It was one of the best places Jake and I visited while we lived out there. So using Pike's first name for our house made a good connection to Colorado.

HISTORICAL RESEARCH - We haven't had much time to do a lot of research about the house yet. We think that what looks like an addition off the back of the house was the original house on the property, circa 1811. The main house was built around 1820. We know some about the original owner, much of it from an article in the county historical society newsletter.

Thomas Dole, a Brigadier General in the New York State militia during the War of 1812, was the original builder and owner. He and some family members are buried in a little cemetery down the road about 1/4 mile. According to the Pike Town Historian, Dole held town meetings and, so we've heard, Masonic meetings in the house. There are also (as of yet unsubstantiated) stories about the house being a stop on the Underground Railroad.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE PIKE TOWN HISTORIAN – 21 Jan 2001

About a week ago, the Pike Town Historian, Lunamae Flint, stopped by to introduce herself and meet the new owners of the Dole House. It had been years since she had been inside and I was glad to give her a tour. We talked a lot about the house as she remembered it, the previous owners she had known, and of what she knew about General Dole.

Dole was a general in the militia, not in the Regular Army. He was also a County Judge, and many of the locals refer to him as Judge Dole, not General Dole. Warsaw was not the county seat as it is now, and Dole had a full day's horseback ride to the county courthouse, in a town whose name escapes me at the moment. Lunamae spoke of Masonic meetings held in the house, but it was not clear that Dole was the connection; it may have been another resident.

Dole also loved to fish, and had a fish pond dug on the property (unfortunately this pond, or what remains of it, is not on the property we now own. Rumor has it that he was buried facing this favorite fishing spot. Dole originally owned at least 112 acres (according to an 1830 survey), which was the acreage sold by Marsena and Eliza Drake (probably the second owners) to Wellington Griffith in 1878. This is the first entry on the title abstract, presumably because such abstracts were not kept before then.

Lunamae told me that she was in possession of the original stencils used to decorate the rooms. They were given to her by a previous owner who had not wanted them. It's exciting to think that they are still intact and they will provide us an excellent starting point for decorating. Lunamae and her sister used these same stencils to recreate period walls in another local house, the Griffith House, located on what is now the Wyoming County Fairgrounds in Pike. I scanned in an article that Jake's grandmother let me borrow from an August 1985 edition of the Wyoming County Times. Click here to read it, but a warning: the image will take a bit longer to load since it is about 200KB.

ARTICLE ABOUT THE HOUSE FROM HISTORICAL WYOMING – 21 Apr 2001

The Thos. Dole House in Pike, by H. M. Bower, Town Historian

(On a commanding site about ½ mile from Pike on the Pike-East Koy Road.)

From Historical Wyoming, the newsletter of the Wyoming County Historical Society, May 1948, page 74

Thomas Dole, one of the hardy pioneers of Pike, built a house in what was then largely a wooded country and sparsely settled. This house has been in some ways modernized but the main part is unchanged. The upper story is made up of one of the old time ballrooms, three bedrooms and a hallway. A great old chimney built of stone starts in the cellar. Eight fireplaces—four on each floor are still in evidence. The largest of these fireplaces is in the living room, the next in size is in the room in which Mr. Dole had his office. The others are all of about the same size. Over each of these fireplaces is a heavy mantel and with the exception of the living room, all have hand moldings which are a fine illustration of the skill in hand work of the past. Over the fireplace in the office is a beautiful scroll work figure. The ballroom, spoken of above was built with a spring floor. It was the scene of many a joyous occasion. There are people in Pike who have attended dances in this old ballroom and some of the musicians who officiated are still with us. Looking at the structure you will see over the front door the beautiful fan-shaped figure. That strength and stability that were in the mind of the builder are evidenced by the heavy timbers and solid walls of its foundations.

The farm on which this house stands has been successively owned by Marcine Drake, Wellington Griffith, and Charles Vallance. It has been the home of Henry Vallance for many years.

Now that you have a mental picture of this historic house erected well over 100 years ago, we are sure the reader would like to know something about the pioneer who planned it and supervised its erection with such care that only the best materials were used in its construction. It is said that while it was being built if he discovered that a poor piece of lumber was used, he was angered and insisted in no uncertain terms that it be discarded.

In the Wyoming County history we find that Thomas Dole was one of the early pioneers to settle in the vicinity of Pike, receiving his deed to Lot 27 in 1811 from the Holland Land Co. In 1817, he was appointed one of a committee of five to petition the Legislature to divide the town of Nunda and set up the four western townships: Pike, Eagle, Hume, and Centerville, under the name of Pike township, then a part of Allegany County. This action was consummated by act of the Legislature on 18 Mar 1818, and the action was taken at the request of the people of Nunda. In 1818, he was elected supervisor of the Town of Pike, one of the overseers of the poor, and was also one of three to hold the office of Commissioner of Common Schools. At one time Mr. Dole was a merchant in Pike, a member of the firm of Thomas Dole and A(nson). P. Hinman. On 10 Apr 1818 an act was passed appointing Thomas Dole as one of three commissioners "to lay out a road on the west side of the Genesee River through the Caneadea Indian Reservation and to agree with the Indians owning and possessing such land, for their reasonable damages for said road passing through their improved lands, $1,000.00 was appropriated for the purpose" (from History of Allegany County).

In addition to the 360 acres in the Lot 27 which he bought from the Holland Land Co., he also acquired Lot No. 3, also 360 acres near Eagle Center, making 1080 acres; in addition to which he owned other considerable holdings. He operated a distillery on his lands near his residence and also a saw mill and grist mill on the East Koy [Creek], both of which were run by water power.

Thomas Dole was born in Vermont [New Hampshire] in 1778. He died 24 Apr 1842 at the age of 64 years. He was buried in a private burying ground on his own farm near the highway on what is now called the Vincent farm. His burial place overlooks the location where he had a private fishing pond. By his side are buried his first wife, Anna, and also his second wife, Mercy. In this same little cemetery is buried his first son, Sumner Dole, born in Windham, VT, in 1806, died 10 May 1853, aged 47 years.

Thomas Dole was a man of many parts. He possessed great strength and vitality as well as great ability. We are told that in the busiest part of his life he would spend his entire day many times on his homework and then go on horseback at night to Angelica in order to be on hand for court duties the next morning [he was a county judge]. It is said that he was once heard to remark that he hoped to clear off enough land so that a crow could not fly over it in a day. The inscription on the monument [in the cemetery] speaks of him as General Thomas Dole. The Wyoming County History, published in 1880, states that he was a brigadier general in 1822 [prob. a brig. Gen. In the local militia during the War of 1812].

Letter 19 May 1825:

To the R. W. Grand Lodge of the State of New York

The Memorial of Morning Star Lodge Number 295 if free and accepted Masons, humbly sheweth –

That the charter for establishing said Lodge was granted in December A.L. 5817 that the expenses and necessary disbursements of since that time have been nearly as follows –

For Jewels, tables, desk and other necessary furniture for the Lodge One hundred and forty dollars; for books and Stationary necessary for the same Twenty dollars; that the expenses of the Lodge yearly in providing a room necessary refreshments &c have been about Thirty dollars that the payments to the Grand Lodge for the first half year were regularly made since which time for the reasons hereafter mentioned we have been unable to remit to the Grand Lodge what we are satisfied is Justly due them.

Your Memorialists would respectfully suggest that at the time this Lodge was established the Country was new and thinly Settled and that the members that composed the Lodge at that time were generally poor and many of them Scarcely able to support their families; and that the money necessary to be raised in order to procure a charter was gratuitously bestowed by a few Individuals and such were the embarrassment under which the Lodge labored that for the four first years after its establishment its income was not sufficient to support and defray its expenses without paying anything over to the Grand Lodge.

Your Memorialists would further Suggest that heretofore on account of the extreme Scarcity of money it became necessary for the Lodge to take promissory notes from those who became members instead of receiving the money in hand which was required of them on becoming members and that a great number of those who gave notes as above mentioned and who were thought at that time perfectly responsible have Since become Insolvent and utterly unable to pay, and your memorialists can discover no means of enforcing the collection of the Same, and the quarterly dues of these and many others now remain unpaid notwithstanding the most vigilant means have been resorted to, to collect them.

Your Memorialists would further State that they were so unfortunate a few years Since as to have their Treasurer in whom they had hitherto placed the most implicit confidence leave the Country at the Same time taking and carrying away the funds of the Lodge at that time in his hands to a considerable amount and who went to the Western part of the United States where he has Since died without making any remittances, to loss of which money at that time was a Serious Injury to the Lodge and that the Lodge have hitherto been constrained in Some instances of Poor member, the amount of which together with the money carried away as above stated, the amount due for graduating fees quarterly dues and the notes above mentioned which never can be collected might be reasonably estimated at Two hundred and fifty dollars which is no less than depriving the Lodge of funds to that amount,

Accompanying this letter we Send the Grand Lodge Ten dollars upon the receipt of which we earnestly request the Grand Lodge to discharge us from all demands that they may have against this Lodge unto this time –

Submitting these facts to the Grand Lodge we most respectfully [sic] solicit you to take our case into consideration. We are well aware that we are asking a great favor but we do not think under the existing circumstances that our request is unreasonable, We certainly Should not make a request of this kind had we any expectation of making the remittance due the Grand Lodge. But from the facts above stated from the certainty that there is no possibility of collecting the notes above mentioned and other demands now due the Lodge from Some of the members; from the fact that in the very first commencement of our existence as a Lodge the whole fund hen in our possession were taken and carried away by our Treasurer and from which had they remained in our hand we Should have able to have made remittance in past and how our misfortune in loaning money in some instances which we have been unable to collect – we feel ourselves Justified in appearing before you to ask assistance. Should our request at this time be granted we think that in future we shall not be under the necessity of making a Similar application as the Lodge owe no other debt whatever and is in possession of the best of Jewels, furniture, books and clothing and all other implements necessary for a lodge at work and perhaps not exceeded by any in the Country, we would further State that there Seems to be more attention paid to it by the members and we believe that Such a class of younger men as now are members will in a Short period advance the credit and work of this Lodge to an equality if not a Superiority to any one in this Section of the State.

We further State that we Still continue to believe that it will not conduce to the good of Masonry to Charter a Lodge in the town of Centerville as we have heretofore Stated to the M. W. Grand Master, We would Suggest to the Grand Lodge that we believe there is harm done the Institution for one Lodge to initiate men from within the vicinity of another without notifying the same and are Sorry to State that it has already caused Some difficulty in the bands of the work and we find that Lodge newly chartered and more especially Some that work under a dispensation are most apt to adopt this error as has been the case Since to commencement of work in Centerville.

We have many letters from our leading brethren in New York inviting us to hail them as our Sovereign head; but we Consider that we never ceased to have one more Congenial to our views, and do still claim that Grand Lodge of whom our worthy Brother Joseph Enos is Grand Master; as our protector.

Walter Patchin was born in Norwalk, CT, 24 Jul 1764. He joined the Continental Army and took part in defense of the town (Cowen) against the British and Indians. Young Patchin was injured and later, pensioned by the Government for the injury he received.

Later he settled in Marcellus, Onondaga county, and in 1814, moved to Patchinville, giving a name to the place. He settled near the present residence of Hon. Gordon M. Patchin. Walter Patchin was twice married. His first wife was the mother of Dr. Warren Patchin. Myron W. Patchin was the ninth of eleven children of his second wife.

"When Walter Patchin moved to town," says Jarvis in his history of Wayland "he transported his goods with an ox team and in coming down the East Patchin hill over which the old road led, one of his oxen fell and broke his neck. A most serious loss for a Pioneer farmer. On inquiring of Benjamin Perkins he learned of a settler near Dansville, of whom an ox could be obtained. But Mr. Patchin was not prepared to pay just then, and being a stranger was in a predicament from which Mr. Perkins relieved him by picking up a chip, on which he scratched his initials, "B. P." and gave it to Mr. Patchin to hand to the settler, which he did and came back with his bovine. This is the first recorded bank check in town."

Probably no man had a more strenuous life than did Dr. Warren Patchin, a son of Walter Patchin, who saw service in the war of 1812 to 1814. He came to Patchinville shortly after his father and was the most noted practitioner in all this locality and there were other grand ones. He was an active member of the Steuben Medical Society from its organization in 1818, and its first President. He still found time to do other things than practice medicine. In 1820 he built the Patchinville sawmill, which burned in 1821, and in 1822, he erected the Patchinville grist mill. The tax roll for 1829 gives Warren Patchin 409 acres valued at $12 per acre, the highest on the list. The long time famous Patchin Hotel was built by him in 1824. For many years it was a typical country tavern, where the young men of the day brought their sweethearts, in that early day to the swell dances.

Dr. Warren Patchin, who was born at Balston, in 1784, had graduated from Fairfield Seminary and had seen service in the war of 1812-14. He followed his father from Marcellus to the 'far west,' as this country was then known, and in 1816 he settled on what is now the Marlette farm. He was the most noted medical practitioner of his period in this locality, his clientele extending over a radius of fifty miles of territory, and at a time when bridle paths were the principal highways it was not an uncommon occurrence for him to be compelled, if overtaken by night, to fasten his horse to a tree and make himself as comfortable as possible until daylight permitted him to continue his journey. He was an active member of the Steuben Medical Society from the time of its organization, in 1818, and was its first president. He again held the presidency of the organization in 1824 and in 1843-4. Aside from his professional work he found time and energy to devote to business matters, and in 1820 he built the Patchinville saw mill, which burned the following year, and in 1882 he erected the grist mill. The longtime famous Patchin's Mills hotel was built by him in 1824.

It was his intention to make it of brick, which he endeavored to manufacture, but the clay was deficient and the bricks proved worthless, so the wooden structure was erected. It stood where now is the house of John P. Morsch and was a typical country tavern. Dr. Patchin became the father of six children: Warren, 1804-1879; Jabez, 1806-182.5; Harriet (Mrs. Warring), 1808-186—; Ira, 1812-1898; Cameron, 1820-1896; Minerva (Mrs. John Young), 1826-1900. Dr. Warren Patchin died in 1872.

Gray, Arnold Wheaton, Ephraim B. Simon(d)s, Alvin Cole, John H.
Goff, David Southworth, Alvah (Alva) Slack, John
Boyd, Benjamin Lawrence, Jonathan Horton, Isaiah

Recommended by: Dansville Lodge No. 306, 19 Dec 1825 and Genesee Lodge No. 138, 22 Dec 1825

Dispensation: 12 Jan 1826 "til Jun next" issued by Stephen Van Rensselaer, Grand Master.

First Officers: Alvin Simons, WM; Benjamin Boyd, SW; Isaiah Horton, JW.

First Reg. Communication: 23 Feb 1826

Dispensation 14 Jun 1826 to Philip Woodruff, Esqr., of town of Sparta, county of Livingston, to install the Officers of Luminary Lodge No. 483, issued by Stephen Van Rensselaer, Grand Master.

Letter: 7 Aug 1826 to R.'W.'. Wadsworth, Grand Secretary, that the Charter had not been received.

Letter: 23 Oct 1826 to E. Wadsworth. Note on reverse: "Warrant sent 7 Nov 1826.

Letter: 25 Jun 5828 from Philip Woodruff stating he attended with a number of Brethren of Dansville Lodge No. 306 and installed the officers the 27th day of December 1826.

Letter: 10 Sep 1830 that during "the winter of 1828 our Secretary Ephraim B. Wheaton turned Antimason and robber our treasury of $69.00 dollars cash and Eighty-Eight dollars in promissory notes which he disposed of for his private benefit these together with our secretary's book and all the papers which might lead to an investigation of our affairs as also our Bible and Charter . . . and since that time we have ceased to work . . ." Note on reverse: "Entered on G.L. Books as dissolved."

Alva Southworth had a whiskey still and hog yard. His daughter, Caroline, married a Wheaton.

Dr. Arnold Gray came here about 1827, and commenced practice with Dr. Norton. After one or two years he and Norton dissolved partnership, and he practiced on his own account. He had an extensive ride, and probably rode more miles over the hills of Springwater than any other man, for he practiced for over fifty years, and until his death. He had three children, one son and two daughters. One daughter was Mrs. Dr. T. D. Connor.

David Goff came from Burlington, Otsego county, NY, and located on the farm where the south grist mill is, about 1818. He built a saw mill and after a few years built a grist mill on the site of the present mills. He finally sold his property here and went west to Northern Illinois, about 1838. He married Nancy Day, daughter of Daniel Day, also of Burlington, Otsego Co.

Jacob Cannon [EA 22 Mar; FC 5 Apr; Raised 5 Apr 1826] kept a tavern. Cannon settled at Springwater about 1810, where he resided for a long time; and it being a central, place, or near the center of the town, it became a place for doing town business, such as holding elections, town meetings, and other public gatherings, for about a dozen years.

Now there was a little transaction that took place there that may be worth mentioning. About 1827 or 1828, there was a lodge of Free Masons in Springwater, and they held lodge meetings in an upper room of this old tavern. It was about the time that William Morgan wrote a book purporting to be an expose of the secrets of Masonry. He was arrested and confined in Canandaigua jail, and in a short time was privately taken from the jail and conveyed to parts unknown, which created a great excitement and caused the anti-Masonic party to spring up; and in Springwater there was an anxiety to know more about the secret society, and among the number who were desirous to ascertain the workings of the mysterious order, was Mrs. Jacob Cannon, [Abigail] or "Aunt Nabby," as she was called. As she knew of the time of meeting of the lodge, she provided a way of access to the garret over the lodge room. She made a small opening in the ceiling where she could both see and hear what was said and done in the lodge room. She was in the habit of repairing to her hiding place before the assembling of the meeting, and remain during the session. By this means she learned the time when there were to be some new members initiated. Thinking that she must have someone with her to enjoy the show, she got a young man to help her watch, and they witnessed the proceedings. Now as it is hard for one to keep a secret, it is much harder for two, and in some way it leaked out that they had been watching. It created a great commotion, but Aunt Nabby stood firm and did not scare worth a cent. There were no more meetings held in that house, and I think not many more in town for a long time, for soon after this the treasurer of the society stole the charter and the funds in the treasury, which were mostly notes given in lieu of money, that being a scarce article; and the lodge disbanded, and what has been done since I do not know.

DEATH OF BRO. JOHN B. HAMMATT. The long and faithful services, steadfast and unwavering fidelity to principle, strict integrity of character, a blameless life, and a constant practice of the Christian virtues of Charity, Truth, and Benevolence, added to a warm and generous Friendship, can ever entitle the memory of a Brother to the respect and gratitude of generous and sympathizing hearts, then that tribute of love and honor will be freely paid to the memory of him whose recent death we are now called upon to record in our pages, and whose name we have placed at the head of this brief notice.

Brother Hammatt was born in Boston on the 12th of June, 1778, and having received such an education as the public schools of the town at that time afforded, he was apprenticed in 1792, at the age of 14, (the usual age at which boys at that day began their apprenticeship,) to the late Deacon Moses Grant, as an upholsterer and paper-stainer; and in 1799, at the age of 21, he commenced business on his own account, and so successfully managed his affairs, as to secure to himself a competency through a long life.

He was initiated into Masonry by Columbian Lodge, of Boston, in the year 1600, and was admitted to membership in St. John's Lodge in 1801, and of which he was elected Master in 1810. He was exalted to R. A. Masonry in St. Andrew's Chapter in 5801, and became a member June 9, 5 802. He filled the office of King in that body in 5808, 5809 and 5813, and of that of High Priest in 5810 and 5811. In the Grand Lodge he was appointed a Steward in 5802, by R. W. Isaiah Thomas; a Deacon in 5807, by R. W. Timothy Bigelow; was elected Junior Warden in December, 5811, and Senior Grand Warden in December, 5814. He was knighted in the Boston Encampment in 5805, and admitted to membership therein in 5806. Bro. Hammatt removed to Alexandria, D. C., in 5815, and returned to Boston in 5830. While in Alexandria he was commissioned by the Grand Lodge of Virginia as D. Deputy Grand Master, in which capacity he visited fourteen Lodges in his District. At the end of the year, he declined a reappointment. He was at the time a member of Alexandria Washington Lodge, No. 29, of which, it is said, Gen. Washington was its first Master. In 5818 he was appointed by the Grand Chapter of Maryland and District of Columbia, as the first High Priest of Potomac Chapter in Georgetown, which station he held three years, when he was called to preside over Brook Chapter, in Alexandria, which received a Charter from the same Grand Chapter. In 5820 he was elected Master of Evangelic Lodge in Alexandria, and served two or three years. In 5826 he was elected Deputy Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of the District of Columbia, over which body R. W. Wm. W. Seaton was at the time Grand High Priest. They both retained their offices until 5830.

While in the Grand Chapter Brother Hammatt was appointed Grand Lecturer by the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia. After his return to Boston in 5330, he was appointed Deputy Grand Master by R. W. Augustus Peabody; he served as Grand Commander of the Boston Encampment of Knights Templars; Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts ; and as Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Indeed there are few official places in Masonry that he had not filled, with credit to himself and in the great acceptance of his Brethren, by whom he was universally esteemed and beloved. He was rarely out of office, and as rarely absent from the meetings of any Body to which he belonged. Proficient in the Ritual of the various grades of the Order, he was always ready to fill, temporarily or otherwise, any place that might be vacant, or to aid with his counsel any officer who might need his services. He was probably the oldest Mason in this Commonwealth, and with few rare exceptions, the oldest in the country. He was certainly one of the most efficient and active. Until within the last few years, he had enjoyed almost uninterrupted health during his whole Masonic life, and his great happiness seemed to be in mingling with his Brethren and counselling them in their labors. About eighteen months since, being in feeble health, he fell in the street and sustained a serious injury, from which he never recovered, and which probably shortened his life some years. He died on the third day of June last, and was buried from the residence of his daughter in this city on the sixth. His remains were deposited in the Granary Burying Ground.
